7784	Henri Gouges NSG Les	Chenes Carteaux 2005	$150.00

One of the last remaining 2005 red Burgundies. If you like the bigger chunkier pinots this is for you. PWS

A classic Nuits nose of game, smoke and earthy dark fruit with underbrush and iron hints that continue onto the intensely earthy, rich and full-bodied flavors that offer good power and moderate but not pronounced rusticity on the long, structured and mouth coating finish. I like the concentration and the structure is coated in sap which confers a velvety quality onto the finish. This is not an elegant wine but it's certainly serious and built to age. Drink 2015+. BURGHOUND

9048	Nicolas Potel Beaune Greves	2005	$145.00

From vines planted in 1904, this Potel owned vineyard is 100% biodynamic and produced a superb Beaune 2005! PWS

Nicolas Potel candidly describes the 2005 growing season as "basically perfect. We had a great and uniform flower set, which means that the grapes ripened uniformly as well. Potel said that because the phenolics were so ripe he did very little destemming and in many cases, none at all. Overall, this is an impressive set of wines and I have to agree with Potel in that 2005 is the best vintage that I have ever seen from him.

BURGHOUND

A very ripe and gently oaked nose of serious and more deeply pitched red currant and plum aromas dissolve into rich, full and mouth filling flavors that also possess ample generosity but here the sweet finish offers better precision and detail as well as a better overall level of dry extract. BURGHOUND

Potel's 2005 Beaune Grèves, from vines planted in 1904, offers aromas of distilled plum, violet, and ocean breeze, a palate with the same silkiness as the Teurons, mingling plum, floral inner-mouth perfume, and pan drippings, and superb length of chalk, salt and meat reduction.

Tasted blind, 2006 Discover Pinot Noir was hand-picked and matured in 30% French barriques for 10 months. It is more introspective than others, but displays a well-defined nose with baked red cherries, a touch of black plum and a touch of bacon fat. The palate is medium-bodied, very well-balanced and natural. Good acidity, sharp red-berried fruits, wild strawberry and orange peel provide the finish. Very good breeding, great length, a lovely Pinot Noir to drink between 2-5 years. ROBERT PARKER

Good deep red. Smoky red fruits show a musky quality. The palate offers intense, sweet red raspberry fruit that builds nicely toward the back, and finishes with noteworthy grip. Left behind a whiff of gunflint in the empty glass. With its combination of strong, fresh fruit and smoky minerality, this struck me as midway between Central Otago and Martinborough in style-hardly surprising as winemaker Claire Mulholland was the winemaker at Martinborough Vineyard from 1998 through 2005.

2776	Pichon Lalande 2003	No further discount $280.00

The highlight of the tasting last Saturday this is truly great 2003 red Bordeaux. We have a little remaining in stock but once gone there will be no more, don't miss out.

PWS

The brilliant, opulent, fleshy 2003 Pichon Lalande (65% Cabernet Sauvignon, 31% Merlot, and 4% Petit Verdot) possesses a high pH of 3.8 as well as 13% alcohol. Reminiscent of the 1982 Pichon Lalande (which never shut down and continues to go from strength to strength), the dense plum/purple-colored 2003 offers gorgeous aromas of blackberries, plum liqueur, sweet cherries, smoke, and melted licorice. Fleshy, full-bodied, and intense, displaying a seamless integration of wood, acidity, tannin, and alcohol, this beauty can be drunk now or cellared for 20 years or more.

12423 Mount Mary Quintet Cabernet 2006 No further discount $125.00

Deeply coloured, there is more than a touch Bordeaux like with its complex dark berry, gently leafy aromas and palate which is both elegant and persistent. Reminiscent of the great Mount Marys of the late 1980s and early 1990s this should repay at least 10 years in the cellar. PWS

12227	Vietti Perbacco Nebbiolo Langhe 2006	$58.00

Vietti is one of the most historic properties in Piedmont. The estate is best known for its top-flight Barolos, yet in recent years I have been equally impressed with the entry-level wines. These are among the finest wines being made anywhere in Italy. The Langhe Nebbiolo Perbacco, which is made from Barolo-classified vineyards, in particular, is one of the great values in wine today.

Encouraging purple hue; brisk and lively, with multi-spice overtones on a vibrant palate with excellent length; minimal oak appropriate. 92 points, drink to 2012

JAMES HALLIDAY

We had no idea that Noémie Coursodon (who worked for us for about eight months, before returning home recently) belonged to a winemaking family in the Rhone until she casually asked us one day whether we would like to taste her family's wine. Naturally, we said of course we would like taste it! We were completely bowled over by how good the wine was and we are delighted to announce that the Coursodon Saint Josephs are now available in Australia for the first time. But you don't need to take our word for it as Tanzer and Parker both love the wine too! Prince Wine Store

The 2,000-case cuvee of 2006 St.-Joseph Silice is 100% destemmed, and aged in both barrel and demi-muids. It exhibits a dense ruby/purple color along with gorgeous red and black fruit notes intermixed with licorice, subtle smoke, and spice. Elegant yet substantial, this is a beauty to drink over the next 7-8 years. ROBERT PARKER

Deep ruby. Seductively spicy aromas of bright redcurrant and cherry, joined by a slow-building mineral quality. Sweeter on the palate, with vivid red and dark berry flavors complicated by licorice and mace. The fruit carries through a long, velvety, edge-free finish. This is from all-granite sites, according to Jerome Coursodon, who added that "what's great about 2006 is the beautiful tannins."

Aimé Guibert famously planted Bordeaux red varieties near Aniane, in the hills of the Hérault in the Languedoc in the early 1970s. It was a breakthrough to ask a high price for a wine entitled only to be described as a Vin de Pays rather than full Appellation Contrôlée. The red wine has settled down to a blend of generally about 80 per cent Cabernet Sauvignon plus various combinations of Malbec, Merlot, Syrah, Tannat, Cabernet Franc and Pinot Noir. In the early days Professor Emile Peynaud was effectively in charge of winemaking, even if eventually by telephone from Bordeaux. JANCIS ROBINSON, www.jancisrobinson.com

12151	Domaine Potel Bourgogne Blanc VV 2007	$55.00
	Made from de-classified St Romain fruit. Exceptional quality Bourgogne Blanc that shows good freshness, depth and an uncommon level of regional identity and complexity. The aromatic goes to citrus and nuts with nice interwoven white flower perfume. The palate is richer and more layered than one would expect from this level and shows great flavour impact. Extremely impressive wine and great value. PWS

A genuine surprise, provided you've never tried the minuscule amounts of chardonnay from Rick Kinzbrunner's vineyard near Beechworth, north-east Victoria. This wine is classically proportioned, complex and enduring, made with the same disregard to modern and allegedly enlightened winemaking techniques as the very best from Burgundy. JEREMY OLIVER
